

A program of NIJ hosted by UCF

2009 TWGFEX SYMPOSIUM APPLICATION

The National Center for Forensic Science (NCFS) is accepting applications for the 2009 TWGFEX Fire & Explosions Symposium described on our Website (<http://www.ncfs.org/training.html>):

This one-day symposium (September 14, 2009) is sponsored by the National Center for Forensic Science (NCFS), hosted by University of Central Florida (UCF) and funded by the National Institute of Justice. The symposium has been organized by members of the Technical Working Group for Fire and Explosions (TWGFEX). The symposium will feature invited speakers. Topics of interest to investigators will be Introduction to Peroxide Explosives Manufacturing; Computer Fire Modeling; Chemical Incendiaries and Hypergolic Mixtures; Understanding Ignitable Liquid Classifications and Why They are Used; Explosion Investigation and Reconstruction Using Multi Disciplinary Methods; Location, Recovery, and Analysis of DNA on Post Bomb Fragments; Identification of Smokeless Powders by a Variety of Analytical Methods; Wound Patterns from Blast Effects; and How Pyrotechnics Are Measured. Registration for the symposium only is on a "first come, first serve" basis.

Location: Florida Hotel and Conference Center, 1500 Sand Lake Road, Orlando, Florida 32809, Telephone (407) 816-5182, fax (407) 855-9863, Website: www.thefloridahotelorlando.com

After completing the application, FAX it to attn. Steve Allen at NCFS: Fax #: (407) 823-3162

General Information

Date: _____

Name: _____

Position/Title: _____

Department: _____

Department Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ ZIP: _____

Business Phone: () _____

FAX Number: () _____

Email Address: _____

Special Accommodations Needed: _____

Selection Criteria

Job Description: _____

Pertinent Education: _____

Applicable Experience: _____

Printed Name of Department Head:

Signature – Department Head: _____ (Signature required)